

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY THE HONORS COLLEGE

The Honors College at Oklahoma State University provides top undergraduate students with small classes that take them on an intellectual journey of discovery.

Taught by some of the top teaching faculty on campus, honors courses are often highly interactive, discussion-based classes that engage students in an active and supportive learning environment.

As an honors student at Oklahoma State, you will have access to all of the resources and amenities of a large, Research 1 public institution, coupled with a tailored, top-rated curriculum typically enjoyed by students in smaller, liberal arts colleges.

Beyond the Classroom

The honors experiential learning program allows students to earn honors credit for meaningful, substantive activities that take them beyond the classroom. Areas include:

- STUDY ABROAD
- VOLUNTEER WORK
- RESEARCH
- LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES
- INTERNSHIPS
- PERFORMING ARTS

The Degree

The Honors College Degree is one of the highest academic achievements at Oklahoma State University, and it is earned by completion of both the General Honors Award and the College or Departmental Honors Award with a minimum of 36 honors credit hours with grades of “A” or “B” and a cumulative graduation/retention GPA of 3.50 or higher at the time of graduation. Students earning the Honors College Degree are the only undergraduates who wear a baccalaureate hood at commencement ceremonies. They also receive a special honors diploma and the Honors College Degree is posted to their undergraduate transcripts.

Students may also earn the Honors College Degree with International Study Emphasis by completing additional requirements.
